GRATEFUL AND LOVING MEMORY

OF THE

REV. JOHN KEBLE.

NOTICE.

THE Compilers of this "Concordance," feeling themselves the desirableness of such a Work, hope that it may be acceptable to all with whom the "Christian Year" is a household friend.

They have thought it well to omit such words as would only enlarge the volume without adding to its usefulness.

"If ever, floating from faint earthly lyre,
Was wafted to your soul one high desire,
By all the trembling hope ye feel,
Think on the minstrel as ye kneel."

SPRING HILL, MAISEMORE,
Nov., 1870.
